

After Mrs. Hall went out Friday morning, said to Louise "Better not mention the name we both know". (477)

Talked with Mrs. Hall again Saturday morning (478)

A little before 8.00 Saturday morning Mrs. Hall handed Barbara a pair of white silk-socks and said "Will you wash these for him". Mrs. Hall and Willie then had breakfast and Barbara washed the socks (480).

Did not talk with Mrs. Hall again until about 4.00 Saturday afternoon (481).

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carpender came to house about 8.30 Saturday morning (481).

Barbara first learned of bodies being found about 3.15 (should be 1.15) Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Edwin Carpender came into the kitchen and told "us". Mrs. Hall was not present when Mrs. Carpender came into kitchen (482.).

The word from Mrs. Edwin Carpender came about a quarter past one while maids were at lunch. Could hear a number of voices in the front room (482-3).

About 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon Mrs. Hall asked Barbara in the sewing room for a cardboard box "to put some clothes in for him". Mrs. Hall then asked for the socks and left the room with Mrs. Edwin Carpender who was also present. (483)

The box was a brown cardboard dress box (483).

Mrs. Hall also got linens from sewing room; was calm and went from sewing room to her own room (483-4).
